Safe Sport Education & Orientation Policy

(1.0) Introduction

Baseball BC believes in fostering a safe, welcoming, and inclusive environment for participants. The purpose of this policy is to document a process for how participants will be educated and oriented on Baseball BC Safe Sport policies.

(2.0) Application

This policy shall apply to individuals participating in baseball activities directly organized by Baseball BC, such as but not limited to:

- Spring, summer, and winter camps
- High performance identification events
- Selects team programming (all)
- Grass roots girls and women's programming
- Championships

(3.0) Education & Orientation of Volunteers & Coaches

Any coach, who has contact with athletes, must complete the following in advance of their participation at Baseball BC activities:

- 1) The Safe Sport component of NCCP.
- 2) An annual Safe Sport orientation and review of Baseball BC's expectations and Coaches Code of Conduct. This orientation will be led by the Chief executive officer or designate and should be completed in person at the start of the event or during a video call. The purpose of this orientation is to reinforce the expected culture leaders create at Baseball BC activities.

(4.0) Education & Orientation of Athletes & Parents/Guardians

In advance of participating in any baseball activity directly organized by Baseball BC, families shall be emailed a note indicating Baseball BC's commitment to Safe Sport, a link to Baseball BC's Safe Sport webpage, and information on how they can report Safe Sport concerns.
